FEATURED ARTIST

CEDRIC “VISE 1” DOUGLAS is a Boston-based visual artist, public artist, designer, street artist and social interventionist who has created work in the community for more than 20 years. He is highly recognized for his large-scale murals and portraits in the social realism style. His artwork has been featured in The Boston Globe, Take Magazine and galleries around the country, and is part of private collections including those of Google and Northeastern University. Together with his partner, Julia Roth, Douglas created The Up Truck, a creative art lab. They have engaged thousands of Boston residents using their mobile art truck to tap into the creativity of underserved Boston communities.

IN A YEAR OF UNIMAGINABLE CHALLENGES

For our community and our health care system

Boston Medical Center led the way.

BMC's excellence in providing

Exceptional care, without exception

Was called on as never before.

We could not be more proud of BMC.

Martha and Paul Samuelson

INCREDIBLY PROUD to support BMC. An amazing institution that is always there to meet patients when and where they need it.

Randi and Joel Cutler

HONORED TO SUPPORT Boston Medical Center—Boston's safety net—at tonight's gala. BMC and its staff are the glue which holds our city together, caring for its people and ensuring Boston is healthy and thriving. We most especially would like to recognize the hundreds of dedicated nurses for their hard work and dedication to each and every patient.

Thank you to BMC's nurses for all you do.
